

Please leave the WI No-Call List in tact and as it is. I enjoy being with my family and not having rude telemarketers calling my home for me to purchase product I do not want or need. Time is precious and the phone calls are very intrusive on MY personal time. Especially when they were calling at 10PM which is ridiculous!